

WHEN Women GATHER

WHOM SHALL I send

Character Roles

ESTHER

THE CALLED ONE

A young woman unexpectedly chosen for a royal position. Her obedience and humility prepared her for a much bigger assignment.

MORDECAI

THE GUARDIAN

Esther's older cousin and guardian. He mentors her, watches over her, and acts with wisdom—even when unseen.

HEGAI

THE GATEKEEPER

A palace official with influence. He notices Esther's character and helps position her for favour and opportunity.

THE MAID

THE HIDDEN HELPER

An unnamed woman who assisted in Esther's preparation. Though not in the spotlight, her support helped Esther succeed.

Each woman answers in character, reflecting from their perspective:

ESTHER

THE CALLED ONE

- What helped you remain grounded through such a drastic life change?
- How did obedience shape your preparation?
- What fears or hopes did you wrestle with in the waiting?

MORDECAI

THE GUARDIAN

- Why was it important to guide Esther quietly from a distance?
- How do you remain faithful when your good deeds seem unnoticed?
- What does spiritual guardianship look like today?

HEGAI

THE GATEKEEPER

- What did you see in Esther that made you want to help her?
- How do you steward influence when you're not the main character?
- What responsibility do we have to use our position for others?

THE MAID

THE HIDDEN HELPER

- How did it feel to play a supporting role in someone else's preparation?
- How can unseen service be just as vital as visible leadership?
- Where do you see God working behind the scenes through you?

WHOM SHALL I
send

Group Reflection

What do our roles teach us about the Body of Christ?

- How can we better support, guide, or prepare each other for God's purposes?
- What role do you feel God is calling you to embrace in this season?